

Parenting Tip.....

School Readiness Begins At Birth

Children learn best through their everyday experiences with the people they love and trust, and when the learning is fun!

If your child is interested and involved in an activity
—and having fun— they are learning!

When you are down on the floor with your child,
building with blocks, reading books, and singing songs,
you are helping them grow and learn.

Sponsored by Partners in Early Childhood Education (PIECE)

Questions? Call  CAPS at 785-825-4493